

From the Pastor's Desk

Every "New Year" is filled with new adventures, challenges and opportunities. The Bible implores us to seek the Lord in every decision and choice we make. The path we decide to take and choose to follow will determine the outcome of this year 2012 for each of us. The writer of Proverbs says, "In all thy ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct thy paths." Proverbs 3:6

Seven Blessings for the New Year

May the Lord's presence this New Year be Above You to guard; Underneath to support; Behind as a re-reward At Your Right Hand to protect; Before to lead; Round About to shield; Within as a Companion and Comforter. You find the scriptures!

Have a Blessed, Safe and Prosperous New Year!

Address

You have been distinctly honored by your brothers and sisters in being chosen to the highly honorable and responsible positions, which you occupy,

Your election to those offices is an evidence of the great confidence that the church has in your ability, your Christian character and faithfulness to duty,

You have now presented yourselves in response to the call of the Church, to be installed into the active duties of your several offices and it is altogether fitting that you should answer the following question,

Do you, willingly accept the responsibilities of the office to which you have been elected and do you promise that with all diligence you will give the best that is in you to faithfully perform its duties?

If so, will you answer:

I do,

Will you, having been chosen to serve in this leadership position: endeavor to lead an exemplary Christian life that others may follow; and will you be loyal to the Doctrine, Constitution and By-Laws of the Church?

If so, will you answer:

I will do so , God being my helper,

Will you , promote the peace, unity and effectiveness of the church, fostering the harmonious and efficient working of your respective ministries,

If so, will you answer:

I will
